Part V, Line 4 - Intended Uses for Endowment Funds

To produce income, meet future contingencies and provide for the program's perpetuity in Israel. However, at times, the Center will expend funds for daily expenses or capital projects that arise from the activities of the Israel operations to train guide dogs and instruct blind people.

Part X - FIN 48 Footnote

As required by the FASB Accounting Standards Codification, entities are required to determine whether it is more likely than not that a tax position will be sustained upon examination by the appropriate taxing authorities before any part of the benefit can be recorded in the financial statements. It also provides guidance on the recognition, measurement, and classification of income tax uncertainties, along with any related interest or penalties. This standard had no impact on the Center's financial statements. The Center's federal tax return is subject to audit by taxing authorities. The Center's returns open audit periods are for the fiscal years ending December 31, 2021 - 2023.
